

CARRIED A FORTUNE.

Five Hundred Thousand Dollars on the Body of a Dead Man.

Indianapolis, Ind., September 30—William V. Wolcott of Boston is dead from a stroke of apoplexy sustained on a Big Four train yesterday.

Mr. Wolcott was at one time one of the publishers of the St. Louis Journal and Times, and later was president of the St. Louis Czar Coupler company. He owned large interests in Missouri zinc mines and at the time of his death was senior partner in the banking firm of Wolcott & Co., with offices in Boston and New York.

A search of his effects revealed the fact that he carried with him a large fortune. He had in his valise $500,000 in government bonds and about $2000 in cash on his person.
